Section 32(c) Sample Statement for Judges

Sample Court Statement:

As a part of your sentence you are being ordered into the _____ County Alcohol and Drug Program.

- ☐ The court program is operated by an addiction treatment services provider who provides the court program services and also provides treatment at an additional cost.
- ☐ If treatment is recommended, you will be provided with a list of acceptable treatment providers and you have a right to select any provider on that list without coercion or fear of retaliation.
- ☐ You have the right to a reasonable period of time of at least seventy-two (72) hours to gather information about the various treatment providers on the list before deciding which provider to select.
- ☐ You have a right and an obligation to report to the court or to the Indiana Judicial Center any pressure to select the contract program's agency as your treatment provider.
- ☐ Information pertaining to any treatment options that may be available for free or at a reduced cost for indigents or any funding options that may be available to pay for or offset the cost of treatment for indigents will be provided to you by the program.
